

UNCLE JIM IM4U ANTI-BULLYING WORKSHOP

Uncle Jim presents a compelling anti-bullying program entitled “IM4U” (I’m for you). In the presentation, Uncle Jim uses songs, personal stories, questions, and pamphlets for discussion to build awareness and educate children about the following principles:

- ☒ Empowerment through RESPONSIBILITY
- ☒ Empowerment through OBSERVATION
- ☒ Empowerment through CHOICE
- ☒ Empowerment through KNOWLEDGE

Uncle Jim asks the essential question, “What can we do to make school a better place for all kids?” He guides children through the three R’s of bullying: recognize, refuse, and report.

Using humorous songs and personal stories, Jim helps children see that the same guy who has performed on the White House lawn and in stadiums across America is human. He is flawed and has to make the best out of each and every day, just as they do.

Through success principles based on the development of a baby to toddler and beyond, Uncle Jim illustrates how each of us is empowered today if we only behave like a baby trying to walk. When we fall, we get up. When we don’t know, we ask. Through simple and understandable examples, and engaging music, Jim brings the real world home to real students who begin to understand that their teachers are real too, that we all have options and we all have the power of choice.

Uncle Jim has traveled the world living his mission of finding joy and wonder in everyday life. Through this work, Jim has found an audience in every population including gifted children, special needs children, terminally ill children, and abused children at all age levels – pre-school to junior college.

Jim’s own family includes twenty nieces and nephews who literally turned to their uncle Jim for guidance on building character and becoming better citizens, all while having fun. Through these personal experiences, Jim Mayer can become an “Uncle Jim” to the child in all of us, answering tough questions and fostering a sense of teamwork between students and teachers, parents and children in an innovative, kind, and fun manner.

“IM4U” is a refreshing and positive anti-bullying program, guaranteed to cause children to ponder, reflect, and find empowerment in their everyday lives.
